In order to develop an inclusive community for instruction, research and outreach, the University of Connecticut embraces diversity and cultivates leadership, integrity, and engaged citizenship among our students, faculty and staff. This collegiate and vibrant environment promotes and nurtures perspectives that are enabled through differences in culture, experience and values.

By securing your place at the University of Connecticut, you are agreeing to uphold the values established for our community.

As a reminder, you are required to notify the Office of Undergraduate Admissions should you be involved in any disciplinary matters prior to your arrival at UConn. Your offer of admission is contingent upon your ability to contribute positively to the UConn community. Should the information on your application be deemed untrue or if information comes to light that questions the integrity of your application for admission, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions reserves the right to reconsider your admission decision.

UConn | Graduate School

Meg Test

Dear Meg,

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the UConn community of scholars in the Nursing MS program. We look forward to you beginning your program in the Fall 2022 semester.

There are several important items I need to pass on to you:

- Your assigned major advisor is Professor Kent Holsinger.
- You will be billed as In State for tuition purposes. For questions about this, please call The Graduate School at (860) 486-3617.
- As a University student, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and University FERPA Policy afford you certain rights with regard to disclosure of your student records and information. View more information about FERPA.
- Should your plans change, you must notify both The Graduate School and your program faculty immediately to hold your place in the program, otherwise your graduate student standing and your international documentation will be cancelled, along with any financial aid.

Visa Sponsorship

If you are an international student who requires U.S. student visa sponsorship by the University of Connecticut, please submit an immigration document request to International Student & Scholar Services.

If you have any questions concerning your arrival or orientation information please contact our International Students and Scholar Services (ISSS) office. You may reach them at (860) 486-3855 (phone), (860) 486-5800 (fax), or 2011 Hillside Rd., Unit 1083, Storrs CT 06269-1083 (mail).

Next Steps

- At the time of your admission offer, you were emailed your UConn NetID and Activation Code. Your NetID will provide you with access to the online course management system, library resources and much more. If you are a current or returning student, your NetID will remain the same. For any assistance with your NetID or reissue of the information already emailed, please contact Information Technology Services at (860) 486-4357 or email techsupport@uconn.edu.
- Additional Information for new students, including orientation and the interpersonal violence prevention training requirement, can be found here: Information for Newly Entering Graduate Students.

Again, I welcome you to the University of Connecticut. Best wishes for success in your graduate career.

Cordially yours,
Kent E. Holsinger
Vice Provost for Graduate Education
Dean of The Graduate School

Orientation:

- The Graduate School will host a virtual orientation for Fall 2022 that will open in early July.
- Details can be found here:

<https://grad.uconn.edu/incoming-students/orientation/>

The screenshot shows the UConn Graduate School website. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'Home', 'About', 'Information for', 'Academic Programs', 'Admissions', 'Financing', 'Forms', 'Policies', and 'Contact'. The main heading reads 'Graduate Student ORIENTATION'. Below this, a paragraph states: 'We are delighted that you have chosen to continue your professional preparation by enrolling in a graduate program at UConn! As you get started, we want to support your transition to graduate school by providing a multifaceted virtual orientation experience designed to help your academic, personal, and professional success.' A section titled 'Online Orientation' follows, with text explaining that new students for Spring 2022 are encouraged to complete the online orientation experience. A 'Launch Orientation' button with an external link icon is visible, along with a link for 'Need Help Accessing Online Orientation?'.

ORIENTATION

We are delighted that you have chosen to continue your professional preparation by enrolling in a graduate program at UConn! As you get started, we want to support your transition to graduate school by providing a multifaceted virtual orientation experience designed to help your academic, personal, and professional success.

Online Orientation

All new graduate students for Spring 2022 are encouraged to complete our online orientation experience, as it will provide important information about academic and everyday life at UConn, and is the first step to ensuring your success and getting you connected to our community. Our Spring 2022 online orientation materials include videos and modules designed to help you navigate the various opportunities at UConn in order to gain valuable skills and experiences to enhance your graduate education. These materials are contained within "The Graduate School Orientation" organization within huskyct.uconn.edu. Newly-matriculated graduate students will be given access within one week of matriculation.

Campus Change:

- Please request campus changes through your program, and confirm with ISSS that the campus location is correct on your visa documents.

Options if you are unable to attend Fall 2022 term:

For incoming students facing this difficult dilemma, The Graduate School currently has 2 options (possibly 3):

- 1.) With approval from your admitted program, you may defer your admission up to 1 full academic year from when your application was submitted.
- 2.) Withdraw your application from consideration.
- 3.) PENDING: Request permission for a late arrival

A request of a deferral, application withdrawal, or a late arrival should be made through the Accounts & Forms area of your Application Status page.

- We strongly encourage requests for graduate students who have not been appointed as a GA to be made prior to the first day of the semester.
- Graduate students who have been appointed as a GA must submit their requests prior to the start date of their appointment.
- These requests must be submitted no later than the 10th day of the semester.
